We are looking for Relief (Bank) Chefs to join our Hospice kitchen team, providing cover for planned and short-notice absences.

This is a flexible role, ideal for chefs looking to work around other commitments.

You will:

- Prepare and cook meals in line with set menus
- Support meal service for patients, visitors and staff
- Ensure all food meets dietary, nutritional and cultural needs
- Maintain high standards of food safety and hygiene

Why Join Us?

- Flexible shifts to suit your availability
- No minimum hours – work as much or as little as you like
- Calm, structured kitchen environment
- Small, supportive and friendly team
- Free on-site parking
- Online training provided (mandatory)
- Consistent shift times and well-organised kitchen
- Meaningful work supporting patients and their families

What We're Looking For

- Food Safety Certificate (or willingness to complete via our in-house online training)
- Experience preparing and serving high-quality meals
- Understanding of dietary requirements (desirable)
- Reliable and able to work at short notice
- Compassionate and respectful approach to patient care
- Good knowledge of health & safety practices

Safeguarding

The Butterfly Hospice Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of vulnerable people. An enhanced DBS check is required for this role.
